PRESIDENT'S LETTER - OCTOBER 2010

We had a very loose and funny class in October, even if, as one of the leaders, I say so myself. Lots of nostril jokes going around (you had to be there) and some great santa candelabras being painted. I have to thank Lin Tillman for the inspiration for this project - she had received one years ago and 'recycled' it for our CCDP Christmas gift exchange. Sue Prine got it and I fell in love with it. I'm still getting orders for extra surfaces!

You should have your Christmas luncheon invitations in hand. Let me remind you again that it will be held in the 'north end' this year. We've had it down in Pawleys Island for the last few years - don't want anyone forgetting and showing up in the wrong place! We'll have our usual gift exchange and our grab bag table - perhaps we'll have another great gift that will inspire us for another great program next year!

If you haven't rejoined CCDP for 2011 yet - there is an application in this newsletter. The word from SDP is that your membership card for 2011 will be contained in the first issue of the magazine for 2011 (in February). I'm guessing they are trying to save on postage costs by combining the two. Link to SDP thru our website (www.sueprine.com/ccdp) to join online.

Our next get-together will be with Cheri Rol on November 6th and 7th. Then we have the Christmas luncheon (December 4th) and we will start the new year with a Ros Stallcup design taught by Bev Cratty. Details are in this newsletter.

See you soon. Clare

Coastal Carolina Decorative Painters Chapter meeting
Sept. 11, 2010, called to order at 9:14 am.

Welcome back was extended to members by our President, Clare Majorossy.

May minutes as printed in the newsletter were accepted by the chapter members.

The nominating committee will be composed of Laurel Barbour (head), Sherry Allison and Sue Prine.

Members returned their completed cards for the Cards for Soldiers project.

Treasurer's report - $5,377.06 balance in the checking account.

Seminar chair Mimi Hankins reports that signups for the Cheri Rol seminar look good.

Program chair Laurel Barbour announced that she has extra surfaces for sale from some of our previous classes

The meeting was ended at 9:20 and Pat Smelkoff was introduced to teach our annual ornament - this year's subject is an angel.

Chapter meeting - October 2, 2010: Meeting called to order at 9:16 am.

Nominating Committee - Laurel presented the slate of nominees. These include Dolores McMahon as president, Mimi Hankins as seminar chair, Clare Majorossy as program chair, Joan Lamberti as secretary and Deborah Parrish as treasurer.

The card for our Cards for Soldiers project will be sent out in October.

Treasurer's report - we have a balance of $6,076.72 in the checking account.

Seminar chair Mimi Hankins announced that sign-up sheets are available for the Cheri Rol seminar. Information on the Noah's Ark plate is also available.

Program chair Laurel Barbour announced that there was information available for the January program - an apple pegboard with Bev Catty - and signups would start in November.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:12 am and Clare Majorossy and Sherry Allison started with the Santa Candelabra workshop.
